We welcome this week members of the Legion of Mary who have come from Ireland and different parts of the UK for a week of mission in our parishes. It is such a blessing to have them here to further our mission here of helping people to come to know the Gospel. I'm struck by the increasing number of people who are coming forward, longing to discover Jesus and the Catholic faith, and I think there are many more out there who would love to do so but find making the first step difficult. Often I think we can be fearful of sharing our faith with others, uncertain of how they might react, or of how to do this in a way that is appropriate. In the parish we run regular training on how to do this, that has helped many parishioners to find ways to do this. If you'd be interested in finding out more please do get in touch.
